ORDER SETTING
BRIEFING SCHEDULE
FOLLOWING REMAND

This action has been remanded by our court of appeals to determine “whether or not to award costs to Jackson as the prevailing party.” Plaintiff has previously filed a bill of costs (Dkt. No. 216). Defendants have filed an opposition to certain items in the bill of costs, to which plaintiff has filed a reply (Dkt. Nos. 227 and 240).

Plaintiff may file a brief in support of an award of costs by MAY 6. Defendants’ opposition or statement of non-opposition thereto is due by MAY 20. Plaintiff’s reply, if any, is due by MAY 27. As the parties have fully briefed whether specific items in the bill of costs are properly taxable, the parties’ briefs should not rehash these arguments and should instead focus

1 on whether the Court, in its discretion, should award costs to Jackson as the prevailing party. No
2 hearing date will be set at this time.
